Man's greatest gift from life is good health
It is then and only then,
That man can truly enjoy everything he inherits,
Or earns in his lifetime.

The noblest deed that man can render to his fellow men
Is to give him the gift of good health.
To ease pain and suffering.
To nurse man from ill health and disability,
To welwhosome well being once again.

In life, if you risk nothing, you risk even more -
